

blAcKamericaweb.com Relief Fund to be distributed to families in need

How will this work?

1) Families housing displaced victims of Hurricane Katrina can obtain the form from:

- Their church: churches can also download the form from www.blackamericaweb.com/relief and distribute to their families in need
- www.blackamericaweb.com/relief

2) The church administrator will forward relief request forms via methods indicated on the church administrator instructions.

Relief requests will only be accepted if they are sent from the church, complete with the church name and church tax id number

3) The BlackAmericaWeb.com Relief Fund will review and select families who will receive relief assistance. Relief disbursements will be made directly to the recipient families. Families who receive funds may be contacted by phone or email
